

Part II: Homework: Snapshot Biography – Another Perspective

Now is your chance to talk to somebody else who remembers one of the important events you chose.

- 1) Select ONE of the events you wrote about.
- 2) Find somebody who remembers that event. For example, your parents, siblings, or friends will probably be familiar with some of the events you described.
- 3) Ask the person you chose to tell you their version of the story. In order to make sure that you are getting their version, ask them an open question about the event. For example, "Mom, do you remember fifth grade when Jane and I stopped being friends? Can you tell me what you remember about what happened?"
 - Take careful notes of the interview. Note which parts of their story differ from your own.
 - Make sure to thank the interviewee for their participation in this project!
